To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to write this letter in support of Matt Bellace and his program "How to Get High Naturally."

Matt Bellace delivers an empowering message to students – that they can make smart, healthy choices which will make a difference in their own lives and even in their community. Through humor, relatable stories, and a powerful message, he is a memorable speaker. Matt's performance is high energy, interactive, and he completely engages the audience from the first moment.

We have invited Matt to Seton Hall for four years in a row. Every year the students are overwhelmingly positive about the program and encourage us to invite him again.

Please feel free to use me and Seton Hall as a reference for Matt Bellace. Any college or university that brings him to campus will be glad they did!

Sincerely,
